

I want to compliment the FCC and its technical staff for creating this vehicle for the average American to participate in these proceedings. Most of the other federal agencies don't have things set up quite this well. Have a great day.
BRAD